Star of 1926

This purpose will have been accomplished, this dream realized if in the dim and distant future this book should cause some one to live again the days "all chastely golden, with joys all too fleet;" or lead someone to catch anew the true Henderson spirit—

"That invisible force
Which engenders loving devotion
In all who walk this campus
Binding them into a loyal brotherhood."

To Henderson

*"Across the many winters that have fled
An echo comes to us of voices dead,
Thy first fair sons and daughters who in memory still
Live on, O Henderson, on thy ancient hill!
Thy halls where the past is ling'ring on
Still breathe a fragrance of the years long gone;
And as we view the scenes our hearts hold fast,
The living, lasting glories of thy past,
We honor each tradition that appears—
O thou great Henderson of the yesteryears!"*

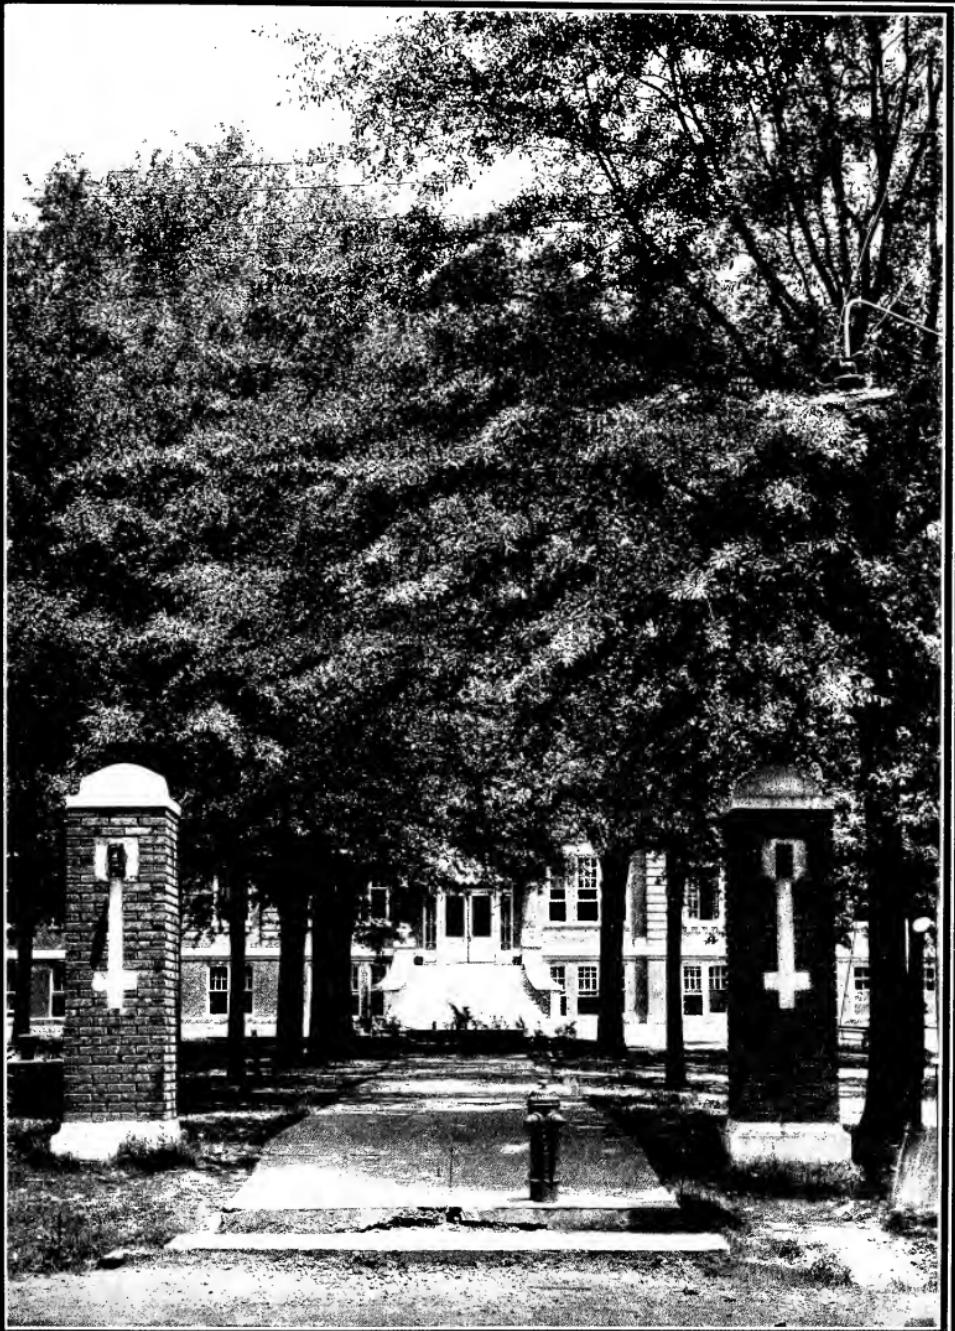

*"The picture fades and vanishes away,
We see, instead, thy beauties of today,
Thy lawns and gardens decked with roses fair,
The spirit of true friendship resting there;
The duties we have answered, and the score
Of pleasures we have known within thy door;
Nor time, nor change, whatever change may be
Can ever touch our loyalty to thee;
More blest than in the years that passed away,
O thou great Henderson of the present day!"*

*"From out the vale of dreams we cannot see
There comes a whisper of the years to be,
A promise that thy future shall be far,
Far greater than thy past and present are!
A voice that says thy fame shall be unfurled
And spread abroad through all the listening world,
And from thy history of the long-ago,
And from our loyalty to the days we know,
Our dreams and longings ever turn to thee,
Thou greater Henderson of the years to be!"*

A glance at the popularity section shows what is thought of our class president. His college career has been marked by the highest order of loyalty to his class, his society, and to his duties in the many positions he has held.

DR. B. S. FOSTER
"The Grand Old Man of Henderson"

His wishes and desires are many—but all for the benefit of others, not himself. Dr. Foster completely forgets himself in his earnest, loyal devotion to his work and to the interests of his students. A true gentleman of the Old South, his life is an example of perfect devotion to truth and the highest ideals for men and women. His teachings create a genuine desire to live the kind of life that counts for the most.

MISS MILDRED SHERROD

French Instructor

Alabama's loss was our gain when Miss Sherrod left her native state to come and teach the romance language in the "College with a Heart." She has made lasting friendships among her students and is always ready to encourage their honest efforts. Her personality, radiating efficiency, sweetness and optimism, is felt in all phases of our college life. A picnic or hike would not be complete without our sponsor, and when there is a serious class meeting on hand she is always present to give her practical suggestions.

Dorothy is among those ambitious persons who finish college in three years. She is dependable, with a generous supply of originality and cleverness added. An eager interest in all that she does—and she does a lot—that's "Ditty." She is always ready to express her opinion and it is worthy of expression too.

Intelligent, clear-headed, and sure of herself, Fern is not afraid to undertake big things. She has been leader of so many of our activities that we sometimes wonder how one little girl could have managed so many things, and then we remember the banker on whom she banks.

Norma is sincere and loyal, willing to help wherever and whenever she is needed. She always puts duty first and is very quiet—but when you really know her she has a store of fun at her disposal and speaks freely what she thinks. She is as "valliant" as the town from which she hails.

SENIOR CLASS

'24, '25; Entre Nosotros, '25, '26;

One look at Hazel is enough to assure you that she is full of vim, vigor and vitality. That is why she is such an excellent yell leader. Besides leading yells for the athletes, Hazel finds time to be a star on the Reddiette basketball team. Her charm has won for her genuine popularity on the campus.

Jean is pretty, whole-hearted and independent, which explains why she is the most popular girl in Henderson. Irish, she is, and her ready wit is sufficient proof of that. Jean's talent as a reader won for her the honor of being president of the Masquers.

'25; Business Manager Star, '26;

Elizabeth has an eager interest in all that she does—and she does a lot. She has been one of the outstanding leaders of the school, all through her college course. If Frank were not so modest and retiring more would know his true ability. Underneath his veneer of reserve there lies wit that borders on the sarcastic—yet you are never offended by it. He possesses those characteristics of a steady, genuine, thorough-going fellow who is sincere in everything that he undertakes.

SENIOR CLASS

HELEN COE

Upsilon Phi

FAYETTEVILLE, ARKANSAS

We are glad that "Kat" came back for another degree. Her charming personality makes us love her; her ability to do the many things that must be done makes us seek her. What could we do without such people?

SENIOR CLASS

GERTRUDE COOKE

Upsilon Phi

ARKADELPHIA, ARKANSAS

Candidate for A.B.

Society Officer, four quarters;
President Society, '26; A. B. C.,
'23, '24, '25, '26.

Blonde hair, yes, but she can not be called fickle for she is as true as the blue of her eyes. Poise and dignity mingled with sweetness and a touch of reserve characterize this petite maiden. Competent and sure, defying her femininity, she wishes to enter the world of merchandise.

SAMUEL MONTGOMERY

Garland

LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS

Candidate for A.B.

Assistant Manager Football, '24;
Manager Football, '25; Lambda
Beta Delta, '25, '26.

If you wish to please Sam then start an argument. He likes to argue and always takes the "other side" of the question just that it may be more interesting. He is an earnest worker and possesses much ability. He proved to be a most capable manager for the football team during the 1925 season.

Club, '26; Honor Roll, '24, '25; Orchestra Staff, '26.

Margaret has rightfully become the gang leader of the Arkadelphia Belles. She is a good student and a regular Latin "shark." Few people know how much she studies—but we all know how happy she is when a certain "Bill" comes around each month.

HORTENSE HAMITER

Upsilon Phi

BRADLEY, ARKANSAS

Candidate for B.M.

Her music is indeed charming and since her entrance at H. B. C. she has appeared on many programs. Malissa is not as loud as her name would imply—yet when she voices an opinion it is in no uncertain terms. Malissa's faithfulness to duty and her willingness to help others have made her many friends. Her scholastic record scintillates with brilliant achievement and deserves notable mention.

Candidate for A.B.

A. B. Club, '24, '25, '26; Student T. P. C., '22; Society Officer, '23.

Dear little Ann! Was there ever a truer, more sincere friend? She will do anything, anytime, for anybody if she thinks that it ought to be done. That's why we love her. In her daily life there is no idleness. She works and loves to work. That's why Henderson is proud of her.

JENNIE MAE WATSON

Philomathean

FORDYCE, ARKANSAS

Candidate for A.B.

French Club, '24, '25; Choral Club, '24, '25; Basketball, '23, '24, '25, '26; Captain Basketball, '26, '27; Association of Student Council, '23; Z. K. A. Club, '25; Society Officer two quarters.

The Redlettes are lucky to have "Jennie" as their captain. She is an athlete of merit and is faithful to her team. She is a girl who can work and play, and do both excellently. There is not a more enthusiastic member in the class of '26.

EUNICE CANNON

Upsilon Phi

STEPHENS, ARKANSAS

Candidate for A.B.

"She has no enemies." We know that she is a real friend who is always ready to listen and to sympathize. She is a scholar, too, always coming close to the hundredth mark. It is thought that she will teach Latin and we are sure that if she does choose to do so that she will be successful. However, some of her friends think that she should become a swimming instructor.

SENIOR CLASS

MARY CLIFTON

Upsilon Phi

HOT SPRINGS, ARKANSAS

Candidate for A.B.

Oracle Staff, '23, '24; Life Service Band, '23, '24, '25, '26; Vice-President, L. S. B., '25; President, L. S. B., '26; Faculty Representative, '25; Entre Nosotros, '26.

Mary would like to give to everyone the welcome expressed in the initials K. T. H. S. Sincerity and definiteness of purpose characterize everything she does. As a librarian she has been a valuable asset to the college and an information dispenser to all.

LILLIAN CANNON

Upsilon Phi

STEPHENS, ARKANSAS

Candidate for A.B.

Curling hair and laughing eyes! That's Lillian. She is so full of pep that it is a joy to be with her especially at football games. Although she does not always make the honor roll she comes so near the mark that some professor's conscience is surely made to hurt. What does her future hold? Success and happiness, we know.

RUBY WILLOUGHBY

Upsilon Phi

TRONZA, ARKANSAS

Candidate for A.B.

Bide-A-Wee Club; Society Officer, fourth quarters; President, Helen Hardy; Bible Class, '26; Y. W. C. A., '25.

Ruby is a real, genuine, capable girl. Although she does not make noise, she is a girl you are always aware of because of what she accomplishes. She is one of the few who are finishing in three years, but in these three years she has proven her worth, and the class of '26 is all the better because she is a member of it.

VARSITY SQUAD 1925

COACH

MANAGER
"RED"

CAPTAIN
BULLOCH

The 1925 Football Season

Beginning the season with a new coach and practically a new team no one knew or ventured to predict the outcome of the 1925 season. However the Reddies played through the strenuous schedule that had been arranged for them and with a fair degree of success.

REDDIES, 0; L. P. I., 0

The Reddies played their first game with the Louisiana Tech at Ruston. The old Reddie spirit was displayed when the Reddies fought the Louisiana team to a scoreless tie on a wet and muddy field. Adams, Bulloch, McClendon and Parker were the stars of the game.

REDDIES, 0; COMMODORES, 41

The Reddies then traveled to Nashville where they took on the Commodores who showed vast strength against the Reddies and defeated them by a score of 41 to 0. Although the Reddies were seriously weakened by the loss of B. Wright and Frank Jenkins, star guards, out on the account of injuries, they made a strong showing against so formidable an opponent as the Vanderbilt machine.

REDDIES, 3; WONDER BOYS, 0

In the third game of the season, the Reddies triumphed over their golden-jersied opponents, the Wonder Boys of Arkansas Tech, in a bitterly contested struggle on Haygood field by a score of 3 to 0. The score being due to the trusty toe of Captain Victor Bulloch, who booted the ball between the uprights from the 25-yard line. Two minutes later Captain Bulloch was carried from the field with a broken collar bone and a fractured rib.

REDDIES, 7; NORMAL, 10

The following week the Reddies took the train for the State Normal and feeling overconfident they went on the gridiron and allowed the inferior team of the Teachers to win by the score of 7 to 10. In all justice to the Reddies it must be said that two important cogs were missing from their machine, Bulloch and Cornish being unable to participate.

REDDIES, 0; S. P. U., 20

The next game was played on Haygood field where the Reddies, failing to score allowed S. P. U. to pile up 20 points during the first quarter. This ended the scoring however for the Reddies settled down to work and played as "Bo" Rowland had taught them to play. The game was a splendid exhibition save for the first quarter when the Reddies lacked the proper defense.

REDDIES, 6; COLLEGE OF OZARKS, 0

"Bo" did not like these two defeats in a row so he took his team to Clarksville, with the firm determination to win from the College of the Ozarks, who the week before had held the Ouachita Tigers to a 3 to 0 score. The Reddies evidently started the game with fire in their heads, for they upset the dope bucket and came home dragging the scalps of their enemies as the result of a victory by a score of 6 to 0, made when Combs, Reddie end, took a blocked punt across the Ozarks goal for the only score of the game. Hill, Parker, and Cornish were the individual stars of the game.

The 1925 Football Season

REDDIES, 3; HENDRIX, 0

The Reddies realized their strength in the College of the Ozarks game and after that they were hard to stop, as they proved when the haughty men from Hendrix came down to give Henderson-Brown a mild trouncing. However this game was peaches and cream for the Reddies because, the soul of the team, Victor Bulloch was again directing the attack. Receiving the ball on the kickoff, on a series of first downs, Bulloch drove his team in to the Bulldog territory, and directly in front of the goal posts. Then, calling for a pair of dry shoes, he stepped quietly back, signalled for a place kick, and with Cornish holding the ball, lifted it squarely over the cross-bar for a perfect field goal from the 43-yard line. Three minutes later, after carrying the ball four successive times for a total gain of 41 yards, Bulloch was laid on a stretcher and carried from the field with a broken arm. This marked the passing of the great captain from gridiron history for the season of 1925. The Reddies were unable to score after the loss of their gallant captain who in leaving carried with him victory over our oldest rival, the Bulldogs.

REDDIES, 26; EAST TEXAS NORMAL, 6

Benny Parker and Loeb Duncan took over the quarterback position and led the team to a 26 to 0 victory over the East Texas State Normal at Commerce, Texas. Parker, Hill, and Cornish were strongest on offense, while Fissel, Carson, Adams, and Sewell were the stars of the Reddie defense. The Reddies probably reached their greatest strength in this game.

REDDIES, 0; AUSTIN COLLEGE, 7

The Austin College team defeated the Reddies, 7 to 0, in the next to the last game of the season. The game was played on Haygood field and in a sea of mud which made good football impossible by either side.

REDDIES, 7; TIGERS, 46

The Reddies lost the last game of the season on Thanksgiving Day when the Tigers crossed the ravine and won by a score of 46 to 7. The extra hard schedule played by the Reddies and the numerous accidents sustained aided the real strength of the Tigers to win by the largest score made against a Henderson team in many years.

BASKETBALL

1926 Basketball Prospects

The 1926 Reddies should be a winning combination, for several reasons. Three letter men of the successful 1925 team will be back to play this year. The team will be coached by "Bo" Rowland and, considering the supply of material that he will have to work with, the Reddies should give some one a run for the state championship. Little is known of the ability of the freshmen who intend to play basketball, but there will be afforded a fine opportunity for some of the new men to make letters their first year. This fact should cause many men to come out for basketball and at the same time put more ginger in the work of the entire squad.

Of course it is impossible for anyone at the present time to tell how the race for the championship will end, but the close of the season should find the Reddies with the win column marked up considerably.

BASEBALL

The 1925 Baseball Season

Seven victories and seven defeats is the record of the 1925 baseball team. Our nine started off like a whirlwind, even though some of the players were ineligible and the squad was largely composed of new men. Everything went along nicely until the disastrous Normal-Hendrix trip when the Reddies could not function properly. Thereafter the defeats predominated over the victories.

RECORD FOR 1925

May 2	Reddies, 3	Ouachita, 6
May 5	Reddies, 0	Ouachita, 26

1926 PROSPECTS

A good schedule has been arranged for the 1926 baseball team. Only a few men are missing from the 1925 varsity, and, with the aid of several Freshman stars, and the return of our ineligibles to good standing, Henderson next season should have a baseball team that in perfection more resembles a Southern League outfit than a college nine.

1926 Track Prospects

The prospects for a winning Reddie track team for the season of 1926 seem exceedingly bright. Five varsity men will be eligible for competition in the association meets, and added to these there will be several good men who failed to make a letter last year, and a host of freshmen who are supposed to possess much track ability.

An intensive period of training will be taken by all men who go out for track, and the season of 1926 should be a season long to be remembered in the annals of Arkansas track history and in the history of Henderson-Brown track teams.
